Spring Holidays

By this time of the year many of us are beginning to feel a little worn out & so, while continuing with our basic "needs-meeting" activities, we try & lighten the load for the volunteers during the spring school holiday program. The original theme for the holiday program was 'Safety' . . . & then someone offered to do a Study Methods Workshop with the teenagers, then the planned First-Aid Workshop was postponed & a play-ground clean-up was added . . . in the end it was a bit of a mixed bag but everything went down very well!

Many of the teenagers have enthusiastically told me how much they have learnt about learning & about staying motivated & focused even when life's situations seem overwhelming! Thanks Leanne!

With the summer season approaching, a Water-wise Education Workshop was presented to help the youth better understand the possible dangers around water & what they can do when there's trouble. Thanks Marcus!

Finally, thanks to James from the Fire Department who facilitated a Fire Safety Workshop which was very relevant for many of the children who live in shacks & whose families cook on open paraffin stoves. Every year we help those who have lost their homes & family members in fires!

We are confident that the study workshop will help some of the children we work with to better prepare for their important year-end exams & that the safety programs have created important awareness & will prevent unnecessary loss!
